To Whom It May Concern:

Labeling Sustainability is a sustainability consulting firm that helps manufacturers prepare reporting and transparency documentation for their products. Currently, we are working with Rollease Acmeda on creating a Declare label. As you may know, the Declare label is a complicated process that requires coordination with a manufacturer's suppliers beyond tier 1, which makes the process more time intensive as we communicate through all the layers. For this reason, we are writing to let you know that the process is not fast and that we are working diligently to finish it and obtain the label as quickly as possible. We welcome the opportunity to update you on our progress in 60 days.

The products currently considered for Declare labels include:

1. Contract series by Rollease Acmeda
2. Ambient Renew by Texstyle, a Division of Rollease Acmeda
